

Pink, pink and more pink at The George Shopping Centre

Above: Stef Howard and Louise Pulfrey cycle towards the 200-mile target.

Right: Wendy Vickers and Tyler Cameron, of Cappucinos, are dressed the part.

THE George Centre turned pink on Saturday, in support of Wear It Pink Day.

Grantham Breakthrough Breast Cancer organised the fund-raising event at the Grantham shopping centre

Organisers Stef Howard and Louise Pulfrey challenged Grantham to cycle a mile to help clock up a total of 200 miles and many joined to help them reach their target.

From donations and a tombola, a total of £325 was raised which will go to Breakthrough Breast Cancer, the UK's leading charity for breast cancer.

The group would like to thank everyone who got involved and The George Centre for handing over the centre for the day.

THE Old Pavilion Tea Rooms at Wyndham Park is holding a Pink Week in aid of breast cancer. The venue's fund-raising began on Monday and will draw to a close today (Friday) with a raffle and tombola. There will also be face painting between noon and 2pm.

STAFF at Bon Marche in Grantham are holding a Wear it Pink Day today in their High Street store.

They will also have a guess the bra size game where the winner will receive a voucher.

Assistant manager Jules Stray said: "Come along and join in the fun."